DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, Claims 1-17 in the reply filed on 8 June 2006 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that a search and examination of the entire application could be made without undue burden on the examiner. This is not found persuasive because the inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given in the office action mailed 24 May 2006, and the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02). While the fields of search for the different inventions may overlap, there is no reason to expect the searches to be co-extensive. The divergent search for the two inventions would indeed place an undue burden on the examiner.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

2. Claims 18-21 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 8 June 2006.

3. Further consideration has revealed that this application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the elected invention of Group I:

Species A: the embodiment of Figure 1 (Specification, Paragraphs 15-20); and Species B: the embodiment of Figure 3 (Specification, Paragraphs 41-42).

4. The species are independent or distinct because as disclosed in the Specification and Figures, the embodiment of Figure 3 has independent and distinct features from the embodiment of Figure 1. Specifically, the embodiment of Figure 1 includes a single dual frequency RF power source 170 that is connected to both the first electrode 140 and the second electrode 150 via switching arrays 182, 184, while the embodiment of Figure 3 includes two independent dual frequency RF power sources 170, 171, each of which is connected to only one of the first electrode 140 or the second electrode via switching arrays 182, 184.

5. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, at least elected independent Claims 1 and 14 appear to be generic.

6. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

7. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

9. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

10. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
